3 AYERS children, Bridget, Hannah and Patrick crossed Atlantic Ocean in a sailing ship 1850. Storms all thru the crossing--7 weeks and 3 days--run short of food. Rough seas threw passengers from cots to floor. Landed at Quebec, Canada thence to Davenport, Iowa.

Their Father's name RICHARD not verified, only that Richard Ayers was named after his Grandfather Ayers.

---COMMUNICATIONS---

from GENEALOGICAL OFFICE (Office of Arms) DUBLIN CASTLE, IRELAND-----

Searches have now been carried out in connection with the ancestry of PATRICK, HANNAH & BRIDGET AYERS, born in Kilrush in 1837 and 1831 but unfortunately no relevant information has come to light. The records of this office do not contain any pedigree or body of information relating to the name of Ayers.----It is very much regretted that this investigation has proved so unsuccessful; Owing to the destruction of many valuable records at various times, it frequently proves impossible to trace a family which did not own, or have a long lease of land or other property.

Atchison, Kansas

(From the files of the Atchison Daily Globe dated 12-20-1916 (Wednesday);

RICHARD AYERS IS DEAD

He had been ill many months--was survivor of Irish Famine.

After an illness of many months from bladder trouble and complications, Richard Ayers died at St. Margaret's Hospital in Kansas City at 11:00 o'clock, Monday night. His body was brought to Atchison this afternoon, arriving at 3:35.

The death of Richard Ayers takes from Atchison a kindly old gentleman, who was well beloved by all who knew him, and many knew him. For years he operated the little confectionery store on Fifth Street north of The Globe office, and his place was something like headquarters for the carrier boys. His association with those youngsters helped to keep him young, and older folks who patronized his shop always found him pleasant and congenial.

Mr. Ayers was born at Limerick, Ireland, April 30, 1839. His childhood was waddened by such hardships as few children know, for he was a survivor of the terrible Irish famine of 1847.

There was a failure of the potato crop, the mainstay of Ireland in the fall of 1846; the people had enough laid by to get through the winter, but with the spring of 1847 there came a famine which was attended by disease, suffering and death, and which made such an impression on the mind of Mr. Ayers, then a boy of 8, that, when an old man, tears came to his eyes when he told it.

His father was in business at Kilkee, County Clare, a small village on Kilkee Bay, a pleasure resort on the west coast of Ireland. But it was a credit business, and with the famine came the inability of people to meet their bills, and Mr. Ayers, unable to meet his, had his stock taken from him and his store closed. There was only one thing to do, and that was to come to America, and he sailed for Canada with the purpose of sending his wife relief as soon as he earned a little money. He left a wife and four children, and shortly after he had gone, the fifth was born.

The mother went out every day as long as she was able to collect a little of the sums due her husband, but it was useless. The people had no money to pay. Four of the children died of the privation and fever that attend a famine. One morning Richard Ayers woke up and found his four year old sister dead in bed. She had died of starvation. There was no money to buy a coffin, and a friend made a rough box out of the shelving in the store, and in this the child was buried. Many who died in this terrible period did not fare so well; hundreds were put out of their homes by their landlords and died in the streets, and were carted off to the graveyard and buried without shroud or coffin.

The father, in the meantime, had found employment in Canada, at $18 a month. Think of the bleakness of despair that must have come over a man who was working for the relief of a family of six for only $18.00 a month. It was in July, 1848, that he sent for his wife and son, and they were six weeks and five days on the sailing vessel coming over. On arriving in Canada, they made their home in Brockville, and shortly after moved to Chicago. A few months later they joined a colony that settled near Davenport, Iowa.

In Davenport, Richard Ayers grew to manhood, and for years was foreman of the car shops of the Rock Island Railway there. He was married in Davenport in 1863. In 1881 they moved to Kansas, locating on a farm four miles west of Effingham. Twelve years later they moved to Atchison.

Mrs. Ayers died seven years ago. Mr. Ayers is survived by three daughters and two sons, as follows: Mrs. Thomas Matthews of Effingham; Sister M. Lucina of Mt. St. Scholastica Convent; Miss Margaret Ayers of the home; Richard J. Ayers of Kansas City, and Joseph W. Ayers of Wichita.

The burial will occur at St. Benedict's Church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock; burial in the Catholic Cemetery. The pallbearers will be Tom Byrne, William Langan, Barney Lyons, M. Masching, William Hayes and Bryan Smith.

From the issue of Dec. 22, 1961 (Friday):

The will of the late Richard Ayers was filed for probate today. By its terms, Richard John Ayers, a son, is bequeathed ten dollars, and Julia Ann Ayers, a member of the Benedictine Order, is given $100. The residue of the estate is divided equally between four other children: Mrs. Mary Ellen Matthews, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Ayers, Miss Agnes Jane Ayers and Joseph William Ayers. Joseph William Ayers is named executor without bond and is empowered to dispose of real estate and personal property without an order from any court. He is also named as trustee of the share of Agnes Jane Ayers, an invalid, and upon her death her share is to be distributed equally among the other heirs.

Mr. Kelley had been a resident of this section for over 50 years, and is well known as an old settler. And for some years later had charge of gang at Princeton. He settled Northwest of town 27 years ago, and lived there until his death. Mr. Kelley was about the farm Tuesday until about 3 o'clock, when he was stricken. The funeral is set for 3:00 P.M. and in charge of Masonic Lodge. He was a member for years.

BRIDGET KELLEY BROWN--will--

The last will and testament of BRIDGET BROWN of the city of Davenport, Scott County, Iowa. I, BRIDGET BROWN, considering the uncertainty of the mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory (blessed by Almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following: (that is to say)

FIRST: I give and bequeath to my oldest son JAMES BROWN the one half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of 16t No. (2) two, block No.(2) two. Cooks & Argents second (2nd) additions to the City of Davenport the west half with tenement thereon for and during the term of his natural life; he dying without issue, the said property shall go to my brother PATRICK KELLEY's and my sister ELLEN's children to be equally divided to and among said children.

I will and direct that the house and lot on 4th street, city no.1815 in Davenport be sold and the money applied to erect a monument on my father, mother and daughter's graves: Thomas & Mary Kelley and my daughter Mary Ann Brown, to cost forty ($40.00) and also a monument to my grave to cost fifty ($50.00); also twenty-five ($25.00) dollars to the parish priest of St. Mary's Church in Davenport for Masses for the repose of my soul.

My WILL is, that all my just debts and funeral charges shall, by my executor herein after named be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by him be found convenient.

All the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, I give devise, and bequeath, to be equally divided to and among my said sons, JAMES BROWN and THOMAS BROWN, to be held in trust for them.

I do nominate and appoint Anthony Collins of Davenport, to be executor, of my last will and testament.

In testimony, whereof, I, the said BRIDGET BROWN, have to this my last will and testament, contained on 2 sheets of paper, thereof subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, this 3rd day of July, 1891 - signed --

BRIDGET BROWN (LS)

THOMAS BROWN (son of above Bridget)

THOMAS BROWN KILLED BECAUSE STREET WAS NOT LIGHTED-----JURY EXONERATES MOTORMAN Thos. E. Lott of any blame. Says accident was unavoidable, as there was NO light on Howell and 4th Street, and Howell and Davie St. It was unavoidable accident. We, the jury, FIND that the deceased came to his death by car No.101 on the D&S line in the City of Davenport, on or near the corner of 4th & Howell St. NO LIGHT-----and we hereby attach no blame to the motorman, Thos. E. Lott. --signed--

Examined all of the witnesses and questioned them closely. Thos. E. Lott the motorman, 1st called.--his story---8 miles an hour--I left the island at 9:12 o'clock Sat. night and reached 4th & Howell at about 9:20, as I was about 2 minutes ahead of time at Pine Street, I ran on 5 points instead of 10 and I was going at a rate of 7 to 8 miles an hour. ---NO LIGHT--- on 4th & Howell and we have had a great deal of trouble about running by passengers there. For this reason, I was watching the crossing on the right hand side. Just before I reached the west side of the street I straightened up and looked straight ahead, I couldn't see anybody ---saw 2 men--- When I got within 6 feet of the east crossing, I saw 2 men standing on the westbound track. The 3rd man I couldn't see until I was on top of him because he wore black clothes. He was standing between the 2 tracks with his back to the car. Just as the fender went by, this 3rd man stepped backwards, seemingly to turn around. At that moment I hit him. I shut off the controlling apparatus and applied aid. My car ran about 70 feet. --- The testimony of the 2 men seen by Lott would have been most valuable could it have been secured. Relying on the only testimony it had, the jury exonerated the motorman, and found the accident unavoidable, under the circumstances. The absence of LIGHTING being responsible for the occurrence. Horsedrawn street car...run over him... gas lights...none on this particular corner.
